

HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION
ELECTRONIC NOTICES CONSENT OR REVOCATION FORM

The Washington Uniform Common Interest Ownership Act (WUCIOA) provides in RCW 64.90.515(3) that any owner may opt to receive official Association notices electronically (rather than by hard copy mailed via the U.S. Postal Service) if the owner indicates their preference for electronic notice in writing to the Association, and designates the address, location, or system to which notices may be electronically transmitted.

With such consent, notices that will be electronically transmitted include all actions for which the Association is required to provide official notice, including meeting dates/times/locations, proposed amendments to the CC&Rs, issues to be voted upon without a meeting, implementation or amendment of rules, fines, etc.

Other non-legal Association notices will also be electronically transmitted, including general news and information related to the Association or the community and its members.
